dam,

Subject: First appeal under Right to Information Act, 2005 (RTI Act) – against denial of information by the CPIO, IFCI in regard to Remuneration paid by IFCI to its employees

I have to state that against denial of information asked vide my RTI letter dated August, 2020, by the CPIO, IFCI vide his letter dated 23rd September, 2020, I had referred a first appeal dated 5th October, 2020 (along with copies of the aforesaid two letters) before you in terms of the RTI Act, 2005, and the same was sent by Speed Post Receipt No. ED160156643IN IVR:698160156643 DT 7TH Dec 2020.

Though as per Section 19(6) of the RTI Act, the First Appellate Authority is required to dispose of the first appeal within a period of thirty days which is extendable not exceeding forty-five days, I have not heard anything on my appeal till now after a period of two months.

I, therefore, request you to kindly pass your orders on my appeal and direct the CPIO to provide me the requisite information without further delay so as not to force me to knock at the doors of the Central Information Commission against denial of information by CPIO and the FAA, IFCI.
